

recreational Church are requested to meet at the church Wednesday evening, July 5, to see what action the church will take in securing a minister for the coming year.—Mrs. E. B. Wagoner, who was the guest of Miss G. W. Waldron Sunday.—Bernard Cary went to Plattsburgh, where he has employment in a hotel for the summer.—Miss Ollie Green of Morrisville was a visitor in town Sunday.—Mrs. O. E. Dodge was in St. Johnsbury Sunday.—Mrs. Anna Pearl of Johnson was a visitor at J. B. Parlow's Sunday.—The Rev. E. G. French was in Johnson Monday to attend a funeral.—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grog Saturday.—Mrs. Maud Mason of Middlebury visited in town last week.—Edward Stevens and family of Kansas City, Mo., are visiting at J. H. Clark's. They will also visit M. D. Davies' family at Caspian lake and in Monticello and Hyde Park before going home.—Fred Hitchcock of St. Johnsbury was in town Wednesday. He joined C. D. at that place at this station Thursday when they were en route to Fort Allen.—Miss Alma Holton is in Burlington to be present at the U. V. M. commencement.—Dr. A. E. Hanford and family will go to their cottage at Caspian lake Saturday for the month of July. The doctor's dental parlor will be closed during his absence.—L. W. Murch, who has been visiting in Maine, has returned home.—Harry Mason, who has been in Northampton, Mass., for some time was in town Saturday. He expects to move his family here.

At the annual meeting of the academy Tuesday evening the following officers were elected: Moderator, C. P. Davis; clerk and treasurer, C. T. Pierce; trustees for three years, C. E. Davis; auditors, E. T. Taylor, J. A. Gallagher, M. J. Davis.—F. L. Dunn went to Lyndonville Tuesday, where he expects to have employment.—Miss Anna Moore is spending the summer at her home in Waterbury, Conn.—Mrs. J. E. Sullivan.—Several of the friends of Mrs. W. E. Montague gave her a surprise party at her home on Winter street Monday evening in honor of her 41st birthday.—Reginald R. Paquette of this place and Miss Gladys Diamond of East Berkshire were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon. The young couple are well known in Hardwick. Mr. Paquette is a popular clerk in the Paquette Pharmacy and Miss Diamond has been a teacher in the A. grade in the academy. They will begin keeping house in B. E. Cobb's tenement on West Church street.

Once—Several of the daughters of Pocahontas were in Montpelier Tuesday to witness the degree conferred on several candidates at that place.—Leigh Paquette and Olive Paquette were in East Berkshire Tuesday to attend the wedding of Reginald Paquette.—A miscellaneous shower was tendered Mrs. Emma Daniels at the home of Mrs. Emma Daniels on Monday afternoon in honor of her approaching marriage.—J. O. LaFay was in Burlington Monday. Word has been received here that Howard Townsend, formerly of this place, and recently of Newport, has enlisted in the U. S. G.—The Rev. William Garner, who recently resigned as rector of St. Matthew's Church in Montpelier, is after passing a month at New London, Conn., will take up the work of Diocesan Missionary in place of the Rev. D. L. Sanford, who resigned several months ago.

CHITTENDEN COUNTY

WINOOSKI.

The total grand list of the town, village and school district as compiled by the listers amounts to $2,982,550. American Woolen company being the heaviest taxpayer with a grand list of $455,500. The Porter Screen company is next with a total of $162,000, and the Burlington Gas Light Co. following third with a list of $114,250. The Burlington Flouring company ranks fourth with $103,250. Persons and corporations paying taxes over more than $5,000 follow:

Allard, E. E. $5,825
Allen, R. H. E. 3,200
Allen, G. E. estate 3,000
American Woolen Co. 455,500
Brassor, P. N. and Elizabeth 3,200
Bailey, Emma J. 5,400
Barnes, M. J. and Lottie M. 4,000
Biswell, F. E. 4,750
Benny, Henry P. 12,900
Blais, E. J. and Corinna 4,550
Blukely, Frank 3,000
Blodo, H. O. 2,500
Blossom, Mary 5,500
Bunker, W. C. and Ellen 4,000
Burns, Clara D. 4,000
Burlington Gas Light Co. 114,250
Burlington Flouring Co. 103,250
Carpenter, Frank 12,200
Carpenter, George 8,500
Cary, B. E. and Gertrude S. 8,300
Cary, James M. and Maria 3,250
Cheever, J. B. and Lillie A. 5,250
Collins, Mrs. E. 5,400
Colchester Cooperative Creamery 3,500
Davis, Harriet E. estate 3,475
Desautels, John 3,400
Desautels, A. J. 6,500
Desautels, J. H. and Marie R. 3,300
Dorin, Louis 3,500
Douglass, M. E. estate 4,625
Dunne, Alphonse, estate 4,400
Dunne, John 4,900
Dillon, John 4,900
Duprat, E. J. and Emma 4,500
Eastman, Medora V. estate 4,800
Espiné and Melnick 5,500
Farnsworth, J. W. and Marion A. 3,375
Findlay, George D. 3,400
Fontaine, Eliza 3,450
Fletcher, Ruth and Ethel 4,200
Fols, R. P. 3,200
Graves, George E. and Irene A. 5,000
Graves, F. L. George and Irene 5,000
Graves, Mary E. estate 4,575
Graves, George T. 4,575
Greaney, D. J. estate 3,300
Gullette, Philip 3,600
Hathorne, H. G. and Anna 3,055
Hill, A. E. C. 4,000
Heath, E. B. 4,000
Hine, R. Ralph 3,675
Horton, E. H. 3,800
Houghton, N. W. 2,025
Huard, Hector 4,300
Lacasse, Charles 6,525
Landon, A. B. and wife 2,150
Lavelly, Philomena, Geo. J. Lazon and Ann M. Ready 3,500
Langlois, C. T. and Cecilia 5,700
Lavigne, Mary A. estate 4,100
Leclerc, Augusta A. 10,400
Leveillé, Rosalie 3,700
Lockwood, Grace and Lucile Toby 11,000
Lard, Charles S. 8,400
Macene, Lena 5,000
Mallory, Day Club 5,255
Manning, M. H. and Alice R. 5,500
E. S. Wright 4,005
Marcotte, S. R. and Angeline 4,005
Matte, Ferdinand and Amelia 3,000
McBride, E. and Anna 6,700
McGreavy, P. 7,400
McGreavy, Mary F. 4,800
McGreavy, Geo. 3,875
McKenzie, Mary E. and Clara A. Taylor 3,500
Mead, L. M. and Ida E. 6,100
M. E. Church school 4,500
Miville, Josephine L. 8,250
Monkton, John and Elizabeth 10,150
Monkton, Thomas 6,140
Moran, A. J. 7,200
Morgan, Geo. E. 3,900
Morrow, Samuel 8,250
Moseley, E. J. 4,600
Munson, W. H. 3,350

Myers, Charles 3,100
Nash, Geo. D. and Louisa H. 4,000
Newton, M. W. 3,350
Parizo, Joseph 11,550
Parizo, T. and A. M. Perkins 3,800
Parizo, T. R. and Fred and M. E. M. 5,400
Parizo, Thomas 5,400
Pattinault, Isaac and Rose 4,000
Piche, Rosalie 5,500
Reynolds, B. H. 5,075
Royal Screen Co. 152,500
Pratt, H. S. 3,550
Powell, Lucia B. 3,400
Reynolds, Martha 3,400
Reynolds, B. H. 3,400
Ricker, Gustavus 3,100
Robair, P. J. and Fredell 3,000
Rollaway Screen Mfg. Co. 3,700
Rood, C. A. 13,475
Royal Syndicate 6,300
Seaver, R. E. 7,400
Seaver, Celia E. 4,325
Seymour, M. H. 4,200
Sheehan, L. W. 3,475
Shelton Theophile and Milla 3,875
Smith, Julia A. 5,000
Steven, C. H. estate 3,300
Steven, Mary J. 4,150
Steven, M. J. and A. J. estate 4,500
St. Gelais, Theophile, Emel and Leonard 5,075
Thayer, J. W. estate 6,000
Thompson, F. E. and Mary E. 10,175
Thompson, M. E. 5,500
Thompson, M. W. estate 3,550
Tobey, Matilda M. 3,250
Vilas, W. R. 3,400
Vilas, W. R. and C. 4,400
Vilas, W. R. and Marjorie M. 8,150
Watson, Hattie M. 4,900
White, R. J. 3,315
Whitney, E. B. 2,300
Winoski Savings Bank 6,300
Winoski, L. L. 3,300
Winoski, C. M. 4,000
Wright, Bolla S. and wife 5,275
Wright, J. M. and Rose A. 4,275

graduating from the University of Vermont with the degree of bachelor of science, cum laude, ranking third in a class of 55. She also received the high honor of election to the Phi Beta Kappa society. Miss Dyke has been a member of the Phi Beta Phi fraternity and prominent in class and college matters during her course. She also held her class in the Burlington high school.

ESSEX JUNCTION.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burke entertained the Monday Night and Neighborhood clubs Monday evening. Supper was served at Lincoln Inn, after which games were enjoyed at their home.

EAST CHARLOTTE.

The barns on the farm belonging to the Himmam Wooster estate, together with a silo and tool-house, were destroyed by fire early Saturday morning. A small quantity of hay, all the harnesses, valuable machinery, and two calves were burned. At about eight o'clock Friday morning the large stock barn was discovered on fire, but with the assistance of neighbors the fire was quickly extinguished and was supposed to have been entirely subdued but burst out afresh after smoldering all night. The origin of the fire is not known. There is a small insurance.—E. G. Partt went to Essex Saturday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Henry Bissonet, and family, and returned Monday.—Louis Poulin, the village blacksmith, is confined at home by an injured foot, the result of a fall from a nail.

There was no preaching at the Baptist Church Sunday morning. The Rev. Mr. Place and a large majority of his parishioners attended services at the Congregational Church, it being the day of the church.—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. of Bristol passed one night with relatives here on their way to the mobilization camp of the Vermont National Guard near Fort Ethan Allen to visit their son, H. Rupert Hamner, a member of Company C.—Dr. and Mrs. Varney attended the Varney family reunion Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Varney in Bristol.

Miss Susan Norton of Northampton, Mass., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Bradley, visited other relatives—Miss Sara Ena reached home Sunday evening from Brooklyn, where she stopped to visit friends on her way home from Bryn Mawr, Pa.—L. M. Prindle is in Burlington this week to attend commencement exercises of the University of Vermont, where he was graduated a year ago.—Left Thursday, the 20-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Prindle, is very ill and is under the treatment of a specialist in infants' diseases from Burlington, who was called Sunday.

Miss Carrie E. Tracy, formerly of this village, died Tuesday at Brattleboro. She is survived by the sister, Mrs. Ambler of Fouguesville, N. Y., and two brothers, W. A. Tracy of Madison, Wis., and Dorman Tracy of the West. The late Mrs. S. A. Brownell of Essex Junction was a sister. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the Methodist Church.

The funeral services of Miss Carrie Tracy, a former resident of this town, were held in the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, with burial in the family lot in the village cemetery.—The Thomas Thompson estate of Rutland is taking interest in property at Falls and are taking immediate possession of the store.—John Marek will attend the summer military camp at Plattsburgh for the month of July.—Miss Ruth White has joined Trinity church.—Miss Janet Harmon is away for two weeks on a automobile trip with friends.—Miss Margaret Webb of Rutland is visiting Miss Helen Sanders.—Earl A. Brannan has gone to Westport to play for the graduating exercises of the Westport high school. He was accompanied by George Ray.—George Ray has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Burlington and Lowell.—Mr. and Mrs. Hale of Orange, N. J., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. G. N. Brush.—Miss Letitia Miller has returned to her home in Burlington after a 10 days' stay at the home of her mother, Mrs. David Tower, whose two children are recovering from a severe illness.—Mrs. J. Ambler and daughter, Miss Donna, were in town calling on friends Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Essex Junction were over-Sunday guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. David Smith.—George Collamer of Barre visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Collamer, Saturday.

A strawberry festival will be held Friday evening at the Methodist Church in charge of the two adult Bible classes.

During the absence of Dr. W. H. Mitchell, who is to leave with the Vermont troops for the border, Dr. Robert Maynard of Burlington will take charge of his practice and will hold office hours from one to three o'clock each day at Dr. Mitchell's Shelburne office. He will make calls on any whom him by telephone at his Burlington office, the call being 108.

Halsey H. Cady of Jericho died June 22 at the Fanny Allen hospital, where two weeks ago Wednesday he underwent a serious operation. He would have been 40 years of age next September. He leaves a wife, four children, a daughter, Mrs. Myron Cady of Washington, D. C. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at his late home.

with burial in the family lot at the Cambridge cemetery.

Mrs. Charles Percival has gone to Springfield, Mass., to visit her brother, John Natress, for a few days.—Miss Ruth Williams is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilbur and Mrs. M. E. Wilbur, Cal., are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Wilbur for a few weeks.—Edward Prouty of Montpelier is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pollard.—Miss Ora Lavee, who has been visiting in Burlington the past few days has returned home.—Clarence Mason has hatched out 500 chickens and has hatched 2,500 this spring.—Mrs. Fred Percival, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hebur Percival in Rutland the past weeks, have returned home.—Mrs. John Story and daughter of Westford are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pettigall for a while.

Harold Leck of Essex Junction was in town Sunday.—Donna Bissonet, who is attending school in Rutland, has returned home for the summer vacation.—Miss Bessie Barber of Jericho Center is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Pollard.—Miss Clara DeForge of Essex Junction was at the home of William DeForge over Sunday.—Miss Nellie Bissonet has gone to Essex Junction, where she has a position.—Miss Jennie Fuller of Bellows Falls is visiting friends in town.—Miss Phillis Brown of Boston is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown for a few weeks.—Forest Camp, No. 9085, M. W. A., took in Friday evening two new members and received one application for membership.—Miss Mary Burns is having extensive repairs made on her home.—The Rev. William Cashmore has added to his home on Prospect street a barn and garage and is now making changes to his dwelling house.—Miss Myrtle Rogers has finished her school in Cambridge and has returned home.—Mrs. Martha Meach of Burlington has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bissonet, for the past few days.—Master Carl Day of New York has arrived to spend his summer vacation with his grandmother, Mrs. B. H. Day.—Mr. West and son have moved their barber shop and fruit store across the street. They contemplate adding a home bakery and will also deal in fresh meats.—Miss Mary E. of Jericho and Mrs. Merion Weston and two children of Cambridge were at the home of Lorenzo Rice's, Sunday.—Miss Howard, who has been visiting at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. William Cashmore, has returned home.—The Missionary society of the Congregational Church held a meeting Sunday evening at the church parlors. Miss Howard spoke. There was music and refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Wool.—Mr. and Mrs. Almanzer Butler and son, Charles, of Lewiston, Me., were visitors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Whitten.

SOUTH BURLINGTON.

The King's Daughters will meet Friday with Mrs. E. W. Cowles. Mrs. Kate Toomey, county president of Richmond, will be present and address the meeting. The Ever Ready Circle of Shelburne is invited to attend.—Mrs. Rose Parker of North Adams, Mass., was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Napoleon Myers, Sunday.—Miss Florence Aldrich is visiting Miss Ruth Livermore in Charlotte.—Ralph Aldrich has enlisted in Company M.

ESSEX CENTER.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Wool.—Mr. and Mrs. Almanzer Butler and son, Charles, of Lewiston, Me., were visitors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Whitten.

WILLISTON.

The Union Circle of the King's Daughters will celebrate their 20th anniversary Friday afternoon with a fitting program in Universalist hall. All who have ever been members of the society are urged to be present.

An entertainment by the town talent, entitled "Ruth," was given Tuesday night at the Universalist hall.—John Talcott and family from California are guests of Mrs. Lizzie Talcott and other friends.—Mrs. Lizzie Caswell, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Dora Cady, and her brother, William, and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Vanderhoof.—Mrs. George Hart has returned from spending a week in South Burlington with her niece, Mrs. John A. Hart, who is ill.—Marvin Sherman of Monkton, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Green, has returned home.—Miss Susan Norton of Northampton, Mass., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Bradley, visited other relatives—Miss Sara Ena reached home Sunday evening from Brooklyn, where she stopped to visit friends on her way home from Bryn Mawr, Pa.—L. M. Prindle is in Burlington this week to attend commencement exercises of the University of Vermont, where he was graduated a year ago.—Left Thursday, the 20-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Prindle, is very ill and is under the treatment of a specialist in infants' diseases from Burlington, who was called Sunday.

Miss Carrie E. Tracy, formerly of this village, died Tuesday at Brattleboro. She is survived by the sister, Mrs. Ambler of Fouguesville, N. Y., and two brothers, W. A. Tracy of Madison, Wis., and Dorman Tracy of the West. The late Mrs. S. A. Brownell of Essex Junction was a sister. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the Methodist Church.

The funeral services of Miss Carrie Tracy, a former resident of this town, were held in the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, with burial in the family lot in the village cemetery.—The Thomas Thompson estate of Rutland is taking interest in property at Falls and are taking immediate possession of the store.—John Marek will attend the summer military camp at Plattsburgh for the month of July.—Miss Ruth White has joined Trinity church.—Miss Janet Harmon is away for two weeks on a automobile trip with friends.—Miss Margaret Webb of Rutland is visiting Miss Helen Sanders.—Earl A. Brannan has gone to Westport to play for the graduating exercises of the Westport high school. He was accompanied by George Ray.—George Ray has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Burlington and Lowell.—Mr. and Mrs. Hale of Orange, N. J., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. G. N. Brush.—Miss Letitia Miller has returned to her home in Burlington after a 10 days' stay at the home of her mother, Mrs. David Tower, whose two children are recovering from a severe illness.—Mrs. J. Ambler and daughter, Miss Donna, were in town calling on friends Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Essex Junction were over-Sunday guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. David Smith.—George Collamer of Barre visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Collamer, Saturday.

MILTON.

Alison Herrick has returned from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Rowley, at Willshoro, N. Y. He was accompanied by his grandson, Charles Rowley.—Mrs. George Huntley of Canton, N. Y., spent Thursday and Friday with Miss Ellen Wood.

Joelyn Walker has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. D. Vanderhoof.—Mrs. George Hart has returned from spending a week in South Burlington with her niece, Mrs. John A. Hart, who is ill.—Marvin Sherman of Monkton, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Green, has returned home.—Miss Susan Norton of Northampton, Mass., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Bradley, visited other relatives—Miss Sara Ena reached home Sunday evening from Brooklyn, where she stopped to visit friends on her way home from Bryn Mawr, Pa.—L. M. Prindle is in Burlington this week to attend commencement exercises of the University of Vermont, where he was graduated a year ago.—Left Thursday, the 20-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Prindle, is very ill and is under the treatment of a specialist in infants' diseases from Burlington, who was called Sunday.

Miss Carrie E. Tracy, formerly of this village, died Tuesday at Brattleboro. She is survived by the sister, Mrs. Ambler of Fouguesville, N. Y., and two brothers, W. A. Tracy of Madison, Wis., and Dorman Tracy of the West. The late Mrs. S. A. Brownell of Essex Junction was a sister. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the Methodist Church.

children and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stone of Burlington, sisters of the bride, George G. Willard, brother of the bride, and wife and daughters of Vergennes; Mrs. E. A. Collins of Burlington and Mrs. Addie Butler of Ferrisburgh.—There was a large attendance at the farewell party given by the Ladies' Aid to the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Gulick Thursday evening. Earl Braham of Shelburne furnished music and Mr. Gulick gave a talk, followed by Mrs. Gulick. Mrs. F. B. Smith of the Ladies' Aid responded.—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Holmes and children accompanied by Mrs. C. T. Holmes have gone on an automobile trip to Messina, N. Y., to visit relatives.—Mrs. John Tobey and children of Burlington visited at W. M. Spear's last week.—Miss Matilda Boyer has returned to her home in Winoski after visiting her uncle, Peter Couillard. Little Hilda Couillard accompanied her for an extended visit.—The Rev. Mr. Gulick's Sunday school class gave him a surprise party at the home of Mrs. F. B. Smith on Friday evening and presented him with a $5 gold piece.

WEST MILTON.

Henry Mayville has returned from St. Albans, where he has visited his daughter, Mrs. Mayo.—Miss Jessie Black is at home from Burlington for a few days.—George Granger and family were in Burlington Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Parr of St. Albans were at Jod Patterson's Saturday evening, July 4.—Mrs. Ella Brewster and granddaughter, Florence, of Johnson are visiting at F. H. Small's.—L. I. Strong and daughter, Clara, of Seattle, Wash., came Tuesday night to visit his mother, Mrs. B. Strong.—Osgood and Elwin Hallock of Enosburgh Falls are visiting at C. S. Brewster's and S. J. Randall's.—Miss Ruth Andrews went to Westmont, Que., Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. R. W. Gorton.—Howard Russell of Waterville visited his nephew, Andrew, the last of the week.—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Norton, of Boston, and Anna Norton and Mrs. Jane Fuller went to Enosburgh Saturday. Mrs. Fuller remained to visit her daughter, the others returning home Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Bump and daughter of Boston, Mass., are visiting her sister, Mrs. R. A. Norton, who is spending a few days at Post Henry.—Forrest Brewster, who has been working in a machine shop in Bristol, Conn., for six months, came Saturday for a two weeks' vacation.

ST. GEORGE.

Mrs. G. M. Hinddale has arrived in town from Boston and is opening up her summer home.—Dorothy Ayer picked out a dining room rug which measured 30 inches.—Miss Jennie McCalligan is passing a week with her sister, Walter, in Williston.—Miss Mildred White and Master Clark Hinsdale were visitors in Burlington Monday.

SOUTH BURLINGTON.

The King's Daughters will meet Friday with Mrs. E. W. Cowles. Mrs. Kate Toomey, county president of Richmond, will be present and address the meeting. The Ever Ready Circle of Shelburne is invited to attend.—Mrs. Rose Parker of North Adams, Mass., was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Napoleon Myers, Sunday.—Miss Florence Aldrich is visiting Miss Ruth Livermore in Charlotte.—Ralph Aldrich has enlisted in Company M.

ESSEX CENTER.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Wool.—Mr. and Mrs. Almanzer Butler and son, Charles, of Lewiston, Me., were visitors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Whitten.

WILLISTON.

The Union Circle of the King's Daughters will celebrate their 20th anniversary Friday afternoon with a fitting program in Universalist hall. All who have ever been members of the society are urged to be present.

An entertainment by the town talent, entitled "Ruth," was given Tuesday night at the Universalist hall.—John Talcott and family from California are guests of Mrs. Lizzie Talcott and other friends.—Mrs. Lizzie Caswell, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Dora Cady, and her brother, William, and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Vanderhoof.—Mrs. George Hart has returned from spending a week in South Burlington with her niece, Mrs. John A. Hart, who is ill.—Marvin Sherman of Monkton, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Green, has returned home.—Miss Susan Norton of Northampton, Mass., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Bradley, visited other relatives—Miss Sara Ena reached home Sunday evening from Brooklyn, where she stopped to visit friends on her way home from Bryn Mawr, Pa.—L. M. Prindle is in Burlington this week to attend commencement exercises of the University of Vermont, where he was graduated a year ago.—Left Thursday, the 20-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Prindle, is very ill and is under the treatment of a specialist in infants' diseases from Burlington, who was called Sunday.

MILTON.

Alison Herrick has returned from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Rowley, at Willshoro, N. Y. He was accompanied by his grandson, Charles Rowley.—Mrs. George Huntley of Canton, N. Y., spent Thursday and Friday with Miss Ellen Wood.

Joelyn Walker has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. D. Vanderhoof.—Mrs. George Hart has returned from spending a week in South Burlington with her niece, Mrs. John A. Hart, who is ill.—Marvin Sherman of Monkton, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Green, has returned home.—Miss Susan Norton of Northampton, Mass., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Bradley, visited other relatives—Miss Sara Ena reached home Sunday evening from Brooklyn, where she stopped to visit friends on her way home from Bryn Mawr, Pa.—L. M. Prindle is in Burlington this week to attend commencement exercises of the University of Vermont, where he was graduated a year ago.—Left Thursday, the 20-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Prindle, is very ill and is under the treatment of a specialist in infants' diseases from Burlington, who was called Sunday.

Miss Carrie E. Tracy, formerly of this village, died Tuesday at Brattleboro. She is survived by the sister, Mrs. Ambler of Fouguesville, N. Y., and two brothers, W. A. Tracy of Madison, Wis., and Dorman Tracy of the West. The late Mrs. S. A. Brownell of Essex Junction was a sister. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the Methodist Church.

The funeral services of Miss Carrie Tracy, a former resident of this town, were held in the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, with burial in the family lot in the village cemetery.—The Thomas Thompson estate of Rutland is taking interest in property at Falls and are taking immediate possession of the store.—John Marek will attend the summer military camp at Plattsburgh for the month of July.—Miss Ruth White has joined Trinity church.—Miss Janet Harmon is away for two weeks on a automobile trip with friends.—Miss Margaret Webb of Rutland is visiting Miss Helen Sanders.—Earl A. Brannan has gone to Westport to play for the graduating exercises of the Westport high school. He was accompanied by George Ray.—George Ray has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Burlington and Lowell.—Mr. and Mrs. Hale of Orange, N. J., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. G. N. Brush.—Miss Letitia Miller has returned to her home in Burlington after a 10 days' stay at the home of her mother, Mrs. David Tower, whose two children are recovering from a severe illness.—Mrs. J. Ambler and daughter, Miss Donna, were in town calling on friends Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Essex Junction were over-Sunday guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. David Smith.—George Collamer of Barre visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Collamer, Saturday.

Miss Carrie E. Tracy, formerly of this village, died Tuesday at Brattleboro. She is survived by the sister, Mrs. Ambler of Fouguesville, N. Y., and two brothers, W. A. Tracy of Madison, Wis., and Dorman Tracy of the West. The late Mrs. S. A. Brownell of Essex Junction was a sister. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the Methodist Church.

CHARLOTTE.

Miss Aldrich of South Burlington is a guest of Miss Ruth Livermore for a few days.—Miss Bertha Besette and cousin, Merie, returned home Thursday after spending a few days with relatives in Richmond.—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Livermore and two children of Hinesburg spent Friday with W. C. Livermore and family.—Mr. Livermore left for Brattleboro to accompany his daughter home.—Charles Shortleaves has returned from the hospital at Burlington, where he went for an operation for blood poisoning.—Miss Porter of Burlington visited at Lloyd Tucker's last week.

The home of A. D. Willard was the scene of a pretty mother wedding June 21. The bride was Miss Delaina Elizabeth Willard, and Jesse Franklin Marble were united in marriage by the Rev. William A. Remond of Watfield. The bride's sister, Mrs. Mower, was matron of honor and Mrs. Remond played the wedding march. Among the guests were Mrs. F. B. Smith, Mrs. D. C. Marble of Weston, parents of the groom, Mrs. E. M. Butler and his old home here.—Children's Day was observed at the churches Sunday.—Miss Ethel Stokes, who has been teaching in Watfield, is at her home here for her vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Pierce of Thompsonville, Conn., are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. French, who have been the partment of the village school closed Friday, Miss Bessie Wead, teacher. Those having perfect attendance were: Marjorie Fortune, Georgia Bostwick and Kathleen Bushey.—The intermediate school, Miss Marguerite McKonzie, teacher, closed Friday for the summer vacation. Pupils having perfect attendance were: Flora Bostwick, May Bostwick Florence Owen, Alma Amour, Stena Goodrich, and Gaylord Irish had perfect attendance during the entire school year.—Colum W. Pierce, first selectman, is repairing the West street, according to a vote in town meeting.—A Sykes and E. D. Mead have begun having.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Isham are parents of a daughter.—Miss Anna B. Patrick went to Castleton Monday to attend summer school.—The Rev. Allan Conant Ferrin of Lowell, Mass., was the guest of H. W. Page over Sunday, and preached in the Congregational Church in the pulpit which his father filled for 23 years.

HUNTINGTON CENTER.

The parade July 4 is to be at 9:30 a. m. instead of 9:00 a. m. There will be a dance at M. W. A. hall Tuesday evening, July 4.—Mrs. Ella Brewster and granddaughter, Florence, of Johnson are visiting at F. H. Small's.—L. I. Strong and daughter, Clara, of Seattle, Wash., came Tuesday night to visit his mother, Mrs. B. Strong.—Osgood and Elwin Hallock of Enosburgh Falls are visiting at C. S. Brewster's and S. J. Randall's.—Miss Ruth Andrews went to Westmont, Que., Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. R. W. Gorton.—Howard Russell of Waterville visited his nephew, Andrew, the last of the week.—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Norton, of Boston, and Anna Norton and Mrs. Jane Fuller went to Enosburgh Saturday. Mrs. Fuller remained to visit her daughter, the others returning home Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Bump and daughter of Boston, Mass., are visiting her sister, Mrs. R. A. Norton, who is spending a few days at Post Henry.—Forrest Brewster, who has been working in a machine shop in Bristol, Conn., for six months, came Saturday for a two weeks' vacation.

JONESVILLE.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Wool.—Mr. and Mrs. Almanzer Butler and son, Charles, of Lewiston, Me., were visitors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Whitten.

WESTFORD.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Wool.—Mr. and Mrs. Almanzer Butler and son, Charles, of Lewiston, Me., were visitors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Whitten.

HUNTINGTON.

Mrs. Cora Gushing of Jeffersonville is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Sherman.—Miss Fern Fargo of Randolph is visiting at L. H. Sweet's.—The King's Daughters' meeting has been postponed until July 12, when Mrs. French will entertain.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Truax, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sweet, Mrs. T. W. Johnson and son, Glenn, and Mrs. Edward Fuller were Burlington visitors Saturday and attended the matinee of "Robin Hood"—Charles Fahy, who has been suffering from blood poisoning in his hand, the past week is not as well.—Mrs. W. W. Bawney is visiting her daughter in Rutland.

The improvement society will give a musical entertainment Thursday evening at the town hall. Refreshments will be served.—At the farmers' meeting Friday evening it is expected that Thomas Bradley of the Extension Service of the University of Vermont and others will speak. The Women's Union will serve refreshments.—Miss Ruth Howard of Philadelphia is visiting her aunt, Mrs. T. L. Orlon.—Miss Lillian Pettit of the University of Vermont is home for the summer.—Miss Winona Stone of Essex Junction is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Stone, who has been visiting at Mr. and Mrs. C. N. French's, who have been the partment of the village school closed Friday, Miss Bessie Wead, teacher. Those having perfect attendance were: Marjorie Fortune, Georgia Bostwick and Kathleen Bushey.—The intermediate school, Miss Marguerite McKonzie, teacher, closed Friday for the summer vacation. Pupils having perfect attendance were: Flora Bostwick, May Bostwick Florence Owen, Alma Amour, Stena Goodrich, and Gaylord Irish had perfect attendance during the entire school year.—Colum W. Pierce, first selectman, is repairing the West street, according to a vote in town meeting.—A Sykes and E. D. Mead have begun having.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Isham are parents of a daughter.—Miss Anna B. Patrick went to Castleton Monday to attend summer school.—The Rev. Allan Conant Ferrin of Lowell, Mass., was the guest of H. W. Page over Sunday, and preached in the Congregational Church in the pulpit which his father filled for 23 years.

UNDERHILL.

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Humphrey will be held in G. A. R. hall Saturday evening, the occasion being 50th anniversary.—Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss S. Scribner will observe their 50th anniversary at their home in Montpelier. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Berry—Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. French, who have been the partment of the village school closed Friday, Miss Bessie Wead, teacher. Those having perfect attendance were: Marjorie Fortune, Georgia Bostwick and Kathleen Bushey.—The intermediate school, Miss Marguerite McKonzie, teacher, closed Friday for the summer vacation. Pupils having perfect attendance were: Flora Bostwick, May Bostwick Florence Owen, Alma Amour, Stena Goodrich, and Gaylord Irish had perfect attendance during the entire school year.—Colum W. Pierce, first selectman, is repairing the West street, according to a vote in town meeting.—A Sykes and E. D. Mead have begun having.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Isham are parents of a daughter.—Miss Anna B. Patrick went to Castleton Monday to attend summer school.—The Rev. Allan Conant Ferrin of Lowell, Mass., was the guest of H. W. Page over Sunday, and preached in the Congregational Church in the pulpit which his father filled for 23 years.

WESTFORD.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Wool.—Mr. and Mrs. Almanzer Butler and son, Charles, of Lewiston, Me., were visitors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Whitten.

The Union Circle of the King's Daughters will celebrate their 20th anniversary Friday afternoon with a fitting program in Universalist hall. All who have ever been members of the society are urged to be present.

An entertainment by the town talent, entitled "Ruth," was given Tuesday night at the Universalist hall.—John Talcott and family from California are guests of Mrs. Lizzie Talcott and other friends.—Mrs. Lizzie Caswell, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Dora Cady, and her brother, William, and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Vanderhoof.—Mrs. George Hart has returned from spending a week in South Burlington with her niece, Mrs. John A. Hart, who is ill.—Marvin Sherman of Monkton, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Green, has returned home.—Miss Susan Norton of Northampton, Mass., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Bradley, visited other relatives—Miss Sara Ena reached home Sunday evening from Brooklyn, where she stopped to visit friends on her way home from Bryn Mawr, Pa.—L. M. Prindle is in Burlington this week to attend commencement exercises of the